

PAINLEVE MADE NEW FRENCH PREMIER

CHAMBER PRESIDENT ACCEPTS OFFICE TO SUCCEED HERRIOT

Will Immediately Form
Cabinet—Rumor Recall
Of Caillaux.

Paris, April 15.—President of the chamber of deputies Paul Painleve this afternoon accepted the appointment of premier and said he would attempt to form a cabinet.

Coincident with announcement that Painleve would become premier, there were widely circulated but unconfirmed reports in the chamber of deputies lobbies that Painleve had telegraphed Joseph Caillaux to come to Paris and would offer him the ministry of finance.

The appointment of Painleve by President Doumergue culminated one of the most perplexing political problems of the French republic. Painleve previously had declined to take the premiership but was influenced by leaders of the radical Socialist party to alter his determination.

He has strong support among the various factions in the senate and chamber of deputies although it was predicted in parliamentary circles that any cabinet he might form, or any one else might form—would not last more than a month.

It is alleged that Marcus, Mrs. Imogene Remus, wife of George Remus, "king of the bootleggers," and others were responsible for the withdrawal of 891 gallons of whiskey from the Jack Daniels distillery at St. Louis, liquor which eventually was sold illicitly. The Daniels distillery was purchased by Remus and Mrs. Remus, according to the government, Remus is now serving sentence in Atlanta federal prison.

Marcus will be taken to St. Louis in a few days.

ATTIC OGRE BE-HEADED FOR LONG MURDER LIST-ATTEMPTS SPEECH

Hanover, Germany, April 15.—Fritz Haarmann, self confessed slayer of twenty-six young men and boys, was beheaded at sun rise today.

The "attic ogre," convicted of fourteen of his many killings, was executed on the guillotine.

Hanover is the only city in Prussia where the guillotine has replaced the head man's axe.

Haarmann walked calmly to the scaffold. He said he repented his sins and started to make a speech, addressing the limited number of officers and official witnesses permitted to see the execution. He got no further than:

"Now gentlemen, I want—when he was interrupted by the prosecutor, who told him he was not allowed to say anything further.

The condemned man looked blankly from one witness to another, an ex-

DEATH CLAIMS JOHN S. SARGENT, FAMOUS PORTRAIT PAINTER

Tragedy Comes On Eve Of His
First Trip To America
In Many Years

London, April 15.—John Singer Sargent, famous portrait painter died at his Chelsea home here today, a few hours after suffering a stroke. He was 69 years of age.

Sargent's death was lent a peculiar tragedy by falling on the eve of his first trip to his homeland in many years. It would have been a virtual repatriation of the celebrated artist. He has been without an American passport for years but only recently went to the American consulate and filled out his papers and secured a passport.

Although he was an American citizen, for years he had been a self-exile.

Sargent became the most famous portrait painter of his day. He was born in Florence, Italy, in 1856 and was educated in Italy and France. His study as an artist was mainly under Carolus Duran and he was but 23 years old when his work was first exhibited at the Salon. Since that first success, in 1879, his paintings were continually exhibited in the famous art salons of the continent.

He was a member of the Royal Scottish water color society and in recognition of his merit was made a royal academician in 1897. He was an officer of the French legion and held honorary degrees from Oxon and Cambridge.

GOVERNMENT WILL REST POLICE CASE

Cincinnati, O., April 15.—U. S. District Attorney Haveth E. Mau says that the government probably will complete its testimony late today in the case of the three defendants now on trial in connection with grafting. Fifty-five of the 71 defendants already have pleaded guilty.

The defense will base its plea upon the fact that witnesses for the government, were mostly denizens of the "black belt."

pression of unspeakable disappointment coming over his face.

He evidently had planned a dramatic exit after a bombastic speech which attendants at the jail had heard him rehearsing for weeks at night in his cell.

The executioner's helpers advanced toward the killer and started to lay hands on him, but Haarmann realized that he had but a moment left for drama.

"No, please leave me alone. I am unafraid," he said, and unflinching, he stepped up the scaffold and walked to the block. With lightning swiftness he was strapped beneath the bright, keen blade.

The actual execution lasted exactly 45 seconds. German newspapers today withheld details of his execution. The Hanover press merely stated that Haarmann had been executed.

WOULD CREATE TOO MANY JOBS GOVERNOR STATES ON SLAYING

Kills Thirty Two Bills In All—Forty Are Not
Acted Upon

Columbus, April 15.—Governor Donahey today vetoed the Lipp bill, proposing to create a new office of motor vehicle commission and to transfer issue of auto tags to county auditors.

Veto of four other measures brings the total disapproved to 32. About 40 other measures remain to be acted upon.

The governor said he killed the Lipp bill, because of the jobs it would create.

"A more beautiful dream of the political boss cannot be conceived who lies awake at night planning job an effort to create a huge political holding position for his henchmen in ready overburdened taxpayer," the governor declared in his veto message. He renewed his demand that the task of licensing be transferred to the Ohio state penitentiary where the work could be done by convicts at little expense.

The measure also attempts another indirect tax on the people the governor declared by its provision for collection of a fee of 15 cents for issuance of a license, which would cost the taxpayers 187,500 a year.

The governor also vetoed an item for $50,000 in the supplemental appropriation bill for additional expenses of distribution of auto tags by the secretary of state's office through sub agencies. The remainder of the bill was approved.

Rod and reel fishermen will be required to pay an annual license fee of one dollar, under provisions of the Edwards bill which is one of six measures which will become a law at midnight tonight, as far as executive action is concerned, by failure of the governor to act within the required 10 days. The bill does not affect pole fishermen.

The governor said he took the action he did to "forestall forever a general fishermen's license bill which will take in everybody," and as "the best means to prevent the licensing of the ordinary pole fisherman who does not use a reel."

"Fishing is the only free sport remaining the only recreation left for a poor man out of a job to engage in to forget his troubles," the governor said. "I hope it will always remain free. If ever an attempt is made to extend this licensing feature from fancy, professional rod and reel fishermen to pole and line anglers, generally, I hope the common people of the state will rise up in arms to prevent it."

Other bills which will be allowed to become law by lapse are:

By Senator Chamber, Van Wert, permitting relative or friend of a blind person to enter ballot booth to mark ballot.

By Senator Hopley, Bucyrus, clarifying sections of the highway law relative to power of director of highways to move or relocate utility lines in roads.

By Senator Collier, Cuyahoga, permitting municipalities to vote special levies, up to one tenth of a mill for playground purposes.

By Mrs. Maud C. Waitt, Cuyahoga, permitting boards of education to operate lunch rooms.

Two other bills vetoed by the governor were:

By Representative Krueger, Cuyahoga, giving boards of education in charter city school districts authority to issue bonds for erection of administration buildings.

By Representative Cady, Hamilton, empowering board of rapid transit commissioners, of Cincinnati, to sell abandoned property acquired for subway purposes.

EXPECT MUCH STRIFE WILL MARK WIND-UP SESSION OF SOLONS

Bible Bill, Gas Tax and
Donahey Appointments
To Draw Fire

Columbus, O., April 15.—Legislators were returning to Columbus today for what is expected to be the wind-up of the 1925 session of the general assembly. Despite the plan of leaders to close up the work of the two houses before Friday night, there are indications that there may be as much strife crowded into the two days as characterized most of the work of the sessions.

Most of the questions of confirmation of Governor Donahey's main appointments and the passage of the Buchanan Bible bill by the senate and the passage of measures over the governor's veto, will supply the majority of the fireworks.

The Republican majority in the senate is expected to accept the challenge of Governor Donahey in his radio speech by promptly killing the governor's four major appointments according to predictions by political leaders. The appointments are now locked up in senate rule committee where there is reported to be a majority of two votes against reporting the nominations for confirmation. The fight for enactment of the Bible bill is believed to have been won.

Senate leaders are expected to permit the bill to be voted out of calendar committee so the majority favoring the measure can pass it along to Governor Donahey. Any delay in the passage of the bill would be looked upon as the signal for a filibuster by friends of the bill which might postpone final adjournment for an indefinite period.

The two houses are expected to stage a spirited fight over the question of passing the Brown gasoline tax bill over the governor's veto. Support for overriding the veto is sufficiently strong in the house, it is believed but the backers of the measure in the senate are worried over its prospects.

Question of passing the three tax relief bills over vetoes also must be decided.

No new measures are to be permitted before the two houses, if the leaders plan to "mop up" Friday, carries. Proposed constitutional amendments will fall by the wayside for lack of support, leaders believe.

The fight with Governor Donahey over the utilities commission may be broadened by an expected move in the senate to revive the Lipp bill, already passed by the house, which would give the commission power of appointment and removal over its employees a power now held by Director of Commerce Cyrus Locher, a Donahey appointee.

The general assembly, after the windup, will adjourn until March 1, 1926, when reports of special committees on codification of the elections and tax laws are to be considered.

W. M. IRELAND NAMED SUPERINTENDENT OF HIGHWAYS IN COUNTY

W. M. Ireland, Xenia, has been appointed State Highway Superintendent in Greene County to succeed the late B. K. Ritenour.

Mr. Ireland has been employed by the highway department as foreman on general maintenance and construction work for the past two years. Previous to this he was associated with contractors in the construction of macadam roads and helped to build the greater portion of the macadam roads in the county.

The state maintains sixty-three miles of roads in Greene County, of which eight miles are re-inforced concrete, fifty miles macadam and five miles surface treated gravel. The latter extends from Fairfield west to the Montgomery County line. As the maintenance of macadam roads presents problems peculiar to itself it is fortunate to have a man of Mr. Ireland's experience and ability to supervise this work, the department announces. Mr. Ireland will assume his new duties April 16.

OPPOSITION LOSES INITIAL EFFORT TO BLOCK PROPOSAL

Commission Refuses To
Grant Postponement
Of Hearings

Washington, April 15.—Minority stockholders of the C. and O. railroad lost the first round today in their fight to block the gigantic Van Sweringen railroad merger, when the interstate commerce commission refused to grant a postponement of hearings on the proposed consolidation.

Washington, April 15.—The great railroad merger in modern transportation history, hung in the balance here today as the interstate commerce commission began consideration of the Van Sweringen plans for consolidating five big roads into a single unified system.

It is a "billion dollar" proposition, swung by two men under fifty years of age, who began life in Cleveland as newsboys.

The properties involved, contain more than sixteen thousand miles of tracks and sidings and embrace the Erie, the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, the Hocking Valley and the Pere Marquette, operating in ten states.

The total estimate of the investment in these properties is $1,081,000,000.

The commission was confronted at the outset with a demand from minority stock holders in the C. and O. that the proceedings be continued until Chancery court at Richmond passes on the legality of the merger. Thomas B. Gay, their attorney, presented his argument today and was followed by W. A. Colston, attorney for the Van Sweringen brothers.

Sitting with the commission for the first time was Thomas Woodlock whose nomination the senate twice refused to confirm. He is a former director in the Pere Marquette. At the time of his nomination the commission was understood to be split five to five on the proposed merger.

"The proposed grouping is a definite step toward a realization along natural and logical lines of the principles of railway readjustment which the transportation act encourages," Colston declared today.

According to Colston the Nickel Plate, Chesapeake and Ohio and the Hocking Valley are the nucleus for the proposed unified system which provides arteries in the country's main sweep of traffic from western gateways besides an outlet to the port of New York and routes giving direct access from Norfolk and Newport News to the tip of the lower Michigan peninsula.

The system, he said, will have the shortest route between Buffalo and Chicago, south of Lake Erie, the second shortest between New York and Chicago and between New York and Cleveland, while comparing favorably with distances to other points over other systems.

Colston's main contention was that the proposed acquisition of control is in harmony with both the policy and purposes of the transportation act and with the recommendations made by the interstate commerce commission in its annual reports made to congress in 1918 and 1919.

BATTLE LINES ARE BEING DRAWN FOR TRIAL OF WHEELER

Bitter Legal Fight Expected In
Attempt To Convict Montana
Senator

Great Falls, Mont., April 15.—Battle lines were being tightly drawn today in what promises to be one of the bitterest legal fights in Montana's history—the trial of Senator Burton K. Wheeler, on charges of having violated the federal law by appearing after his election before a department as paid attorney for a client. The trial opens here tomorrow.

Wheeler, vice presidential candidate on the LaFollette ticket was indicted more than a year ago. He was charged specifically with receiving a fee from Gordon Campbell, Montana oil operator, to seek oil and gas permits from the interior department.

Conviction carries imprisonment of not more than two years and a fine of not more than $10,000.

Not since the Dempsey Gibbons fight has Great Falls been so astir as it was today over the Wheeler trial. Crowds were collecting today for the thrills that were promised by attorneys for the government and Wheeler.

The government staff has refused to discuss the case other than to declare its complete readiness to start the trial tomorrow.

Wheeler has Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, the famous Tea pot Dome prosecutor and S. C. Ford, formerly Republican attorney general of Montana, to head his defense, which will be based on practically identical grounds as before the Borah committee.

All of Wheeler's witnesses with a few exceptions, appeared before the committee.

"We are going to stand on the evidence before the Borah committee to prove Wheeler's innocence," said Walsh.

TROOPS IN PURSUIT OF ASSAILANTS OF KING BORIS' PARTY

Two Members of King's
Party Slain—General
Also Murdered

Sofia, April 15.—Bulgarian troops today were in pursuit of the bandit gang, believed made up of communists, who attacked King Boris' automobile and killed two of his party as the Bulgarian ruler was returning from Orkhanie to Sofia Tuesday.

The attack came almost at the same time that General Kymon Gheorgid, leading member of the government party, was slain by two young men, as he left a church in Sofia. The assailants, believed also to be communists, escaped through the crowd.

The chauffeur of the king's car and Illichoff, a young officer of the national museum, were killed in the bandit attack. It is not believed the bandits knew they were attacking the king. He showed the greatest courage according to other members of the party. When the chauffeur was mortally wounded, King Boris seized the wheel and piloted the car down a dangerous hill. He caught up with a motor bus which had turned and fled toward Orkhanie when the bandits attacked and leaped from his own car into the bus. According to one report the ruler was slightly wounded, a bullet just grazing his lips.

The bus sped to Orkhanie and troops were sent after the bandits. A battalion of soldiers armed with machine guns then accompanied the king to Sofia.

The blaze did little damage, but produced a heavy smoke which gave it the aspect of a serious fire.

INSURE!

The moving spirit of many a business is one man. The great value represented by this man ought to be at least as adequately insured as replaceable physical property.

Men today, insure property because the definite, tangible worth of property has long been realized and appreciated. In many a business, however, the greatest value is not in the property, but in the men that manage the business and quite often in some one key man around whom the whole business centers. As a rule the property is insured on somewhere near its real worth but the man isn't. The wisdom of taking an occasional inventory of the material property of the business is generally recognized. Similar inventories should be taken of the human property of the business. The services of the head of the business and of the important managers in it should be appraised and their lives should be insured at some figure that will, in case of their death, bring to the business some adequate recompense for their loss.

The problem of insuring the man power of a business as well as its physical assets is a problem that is today receiving increased attention from financiers and bankers as well as from most up-to-date insurance men.

COMMERCIAL AGENCY LOANS

SINCE the bringing into being of the Federal Intermediate Credit Banks there has $60,835,421 of government money been loaned to farmers throughout the United States. During the month of January the direct loans amounted to $4,206,931 and the re-discounts aggregated $2,688,045. Six out of the twelve banks did not make any direct loans in January. This means that commercial, not government, loan agencies are supplying the greater amount of funds needed. Louisville, Ky., had no discount operations in January.

RECOGNIZE SMALL RADIO USERS

THE right of the small radio user to filter the air for the program he desires has been happily recognized by Secretary Hoover. In a recent brief interview he announced that the energies of the radio division of his department would be largely devoted to seeing that the small fellow, both receiver and broadcaster, received a fair show. For that reason it is likely from now on that promoters who plan the erection of enormous blanketing broadcasting stations in various parts of the country will be obliged to prove to the department that the new service which they offer will not discommode or dismantle the smaller local broadcasting stations which serve a daily increasing group of interested listeners.

DETERMINED TO COLLECT

ALTHOUGH Washington is not broadcasting its message from the house tops, it can be said now, once and for all, that the American Government is out to collect its foreign debts, and it will not be deterred from that program. The republican party, in its national platform, laid down the law and the gospel that that plank for the collection of the debts was virtually dictated by the President. A new meeting of the National Debt Funding Commission has been called to take action. There will be a considerable amount of palaver with the representatives of the foreign nations which still stand aloof on their debt responsibilities. It is wholly possible they may gain time, but it can also be said that the most they can hope for is delay. They can never escape the payments. It is also well understood now that the American people will demand full reimbursement for the use of their money and that the foreign nations in cash will pay for each delay which they secure.

If you are wrong and know you are wrong and everybody knows you are wrong, there is no salvation except in dignity.—Akron, Ohio, Beacon-Journal. But if you are right, and know you are right and everybody knows you are right, there is no salvation.

THE FUTURE

An unknown country which I may explore
Waits for my coming. One no man has seen.
Beyond its gates no mortal foot has been.
Yet countless legions wait to tread its shore
Dreaming of larger conquests than before.
Of sun-kissed valleys and of seas serene
Where storms or sorrows never intervene
And rest and joy stand smiling at the door.

Men call this land the future and they set
Their eager eyes upon its distant goals;
Some far tomorrow they shall cease to fret
And find the balm to soothe their weary souls.
And yet one dread of that far land I own,
I fear old age and being left alone.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

ECONOMICS AND IDEALISM

In times of stress or of confusion people who have a look upward may come to disdain the common vocations and activities of life as being sordid and hostile to noble living. Just a word is offered to correct such a tendency.
The struggle for existence is for the mass of mankind an absorbing effort to avoid the margin of discomfort and bitter need. Unless life problems are solved where interest glows there will be no enthusiasm for moral nobility in these people. Generosity and altruism thrive best when the giver himself is not drowning.

The field for ideal conduct is much wider in the area of buying, selling, tilting and transporting than in any other forms of human action. The waking hours are devoted chiefly to these things. If the moralist turns to amusement, intellectual avocations or to idle hours he will find a more barren exchange with his wards; they are off duty and care less for guidance and advice.

The directive agencies such as legislature, school, church and lodge have nothing in themselves that merit our subservient obedience. They are worthless as they aid us in activity beyond the scope of their respective organizations. Each of them is like a lighthouse, established not for its own benefit but for the aid of people living and laboring beyond its borders.

A life policy wrought out in the force of daily conduct will exhibit a solidity and dependableness not to be attained by armchair manufacture. If a man can tell the truth in selling horses he will have character superior to the truth-teller fed on summer fiction.

The uplifter must be in most intimate contact with industry and all similar activities. He must steep his maxims in sweat.

The inexperienced housekeeper often puzzles over the choice of a dinner dessert. Yet, if she will but stop to think, she will see that after all the choice must be within certain limits and that the problem is not such a hard one to solve. Last week I wrote about balancing a menu. Today I speak of the difference between a light dish and a heavy dish. If main portion of a dinner is hearty, then the dessert should be light; or if the dinner is light, the dessert may be heavy. For instance, if you serve a soup, coast leg of lamb, mashed potatoes, green peas, vegetable salad and radishes, you would feel the inappropriateness of a heavy dessert such as Indian Meal Pudding, custard pie, steamed date pudding or a whipped cream dessert; you would naturally select a light fruit dessert for so heavy a meal—such as baked apples or strawberries.

On the other hand, in a dinner consisting of minced, left-over lamb on toast, baked potatoes, beets and lettuce you would feel the need of a hearty dessert such as the following: Steamed Raisin Pudding: Melt one half cup of butter then rub into it, in a mixing bowl, one-half cup of flour; add one cup of sweet, hot milk, stir till smooth and add the following ingredients: One-half cup of molasses to which one teaspoon of soda has been added, one cup of chopped

HER

She used to take my hand and we would walk all over the little town and she would tell me all about that time when she was a little girl and what she did and the things she thought about.

I felt very close to her.

As I grew older and learned to do things about the house and in the yard, I took new interest in all that she did, for it seemed that she never rested a minute or ever complained about being tired.

Her spirit followed me to school the first day and then continued until the school days were over—until the larger schoolroom was reached and she had kissed me goodbye and went away forever leaving me quite alone in a misunderstanding world.

How well I remember her that last day, if all the gathered and most priceless pearls of the world had been placed about her throat, they could not have enhanced her beauty. Her shoulders were a little bent from the daily toil. But her face always held its serenity. The broad brow was full of furrows more lovely than the paths of the stars.

And you could feel the reflection of the gold in her heart when she smiled.

Whatever she did, wherever she might be, she did for someone else. She never spared herself. If she felt that someone somewhere was hungry, she could not eat.

But what a sense of humor she had! What a poet she was. And what an artist, as well as a lover of books. We sat propped up against the slatboards of that little front porch many and many an hour, and talked of our favorite kings and queens from every corner of the world.

That was years ago. I thought of her a long time this morning, when upon waking very early I heard the mixed calls of the birds as they seemed to be practicing for the Spring Festival. I remembered how she loved them and how she told me of their gentle ways and how they ministered to happiness in an uneven world.

SIMPLICITY MARKS LECTURE COURSE OF GAZETTE-REPUBLICAN COOKING SCHOOL AT MCKINLEY SCHOOL FOUR DAYS NEXT WEEK

"Did you ever taste maple syrup cake? Have your luncheon guests ever exclaimed over the beauty of an Angel's Dream served on your table? These are a few of the items to appear on the program of Mrs. Brown-Lewers on the expert lecturer who will preside at the Gazette and Republican Cooking School in McKinley School Auditorium four afternoons next week.

In the four housekeeping and home economics lectures, which Mrs. Brown-Lewers will give to her audience in Xenia, beginning next Tuesday afternoon, there are many heart throbs. Many mothers and even grandmothers who are worried with seemingly unsolvable problems in regard to the home and the family will get out of these appealing talks advice which is not hard to take, and inspiration for going ahead with a task which sometimes seems difficult to accomplish.

The entire program of lectures and cookery lessons is simple and practical. There are no sensational ideas to be advanced merely for the sake of arousing curiosity and drawing a crowd. It is the desire of Mrs. Brown-Lewers to actually help the women who take the time to attend her school, not merely to entertain or amuse them.

The subject of food in all its aspects will be taken up by her and carefully covered in the four talks and cooking lessons. Food values will be discussed, but not in a technical or scientific way which would be interesting to expert dietitians and domestic science teachers alone. Mrs. Brown-Lewers' course, however, will meet with the approval of this type of woman just as fully as it does with that of the average housewife whose deepest desire is to feed her family in the most satisfying and wholesome manner.

Housewives of other cities who have attended the schools conducted by Mrs. Brown-Lewers say that her home making talks and cookery lessons constitute a practical and helpful course, designed to meet the needs of every day housekeepers who are on the lookout for something new. They report that Mrs. Brown-Lewers' talks and methods lend novelty to a theme one is apt to consider old and worn out.

"It is not my purpose," says Mrs. Brown-Lewers, "to present immaterial and soon-forgotten lists of caloric values of food chemistry. What I hope to show in a practical and interesting manner is how meals not properly balanced, how good foods not wisely chosen, leave the family with that 'hungry' all the time feeling which makes the solicitous mother uncomfortable and unhappy, because in spite of her painstaking efforts and hard work, she is not accomplishing her aim, which is to keep her family well fed."

At the opening session of the Gazette and Republican Cooking School Mrs. Brown-Lewers will talk on "Making Ends Meet," and will discuss a real working plan for making a budget.

On Tuesday, and at all of the four sessions of the school, this famous cook will prepare delicious foods which will be given to some lucky members of her classes in Xenia. Mrs. Brown-Lewers is a famous cake baker and has in her cake-baking program some delicious plain cakes, inexpensive and easily made, and also some more elaborate and unusual ones which will interest the expert cake bakers of Xenia as well as the less experienced ones who attend.

It will thus be seen, that the course put on by the Gazette and Republican at McKinley School beginning next Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, will be of inestimable value to the housewives of Xenia and that an exceedingly pleasant and profitable time will be enjoyed by all who attend the course.

HORNSBY AND SAD SAM JONES FOREGO ALL GOLF PLAYING

Rogers Hornsby, dean of National League sluggers, and reliable Sam Jones, star of the Yankee twirling staff, are two players who take marked exception to golf, claiming it is more of a hindrance than an asset to a baseball player.

Rogers, besides liking the game well enough, would probably develop into a golfer above the average, but says baseball must come first. The golf swing and baseball have little in common he says.

In substantiating his statement, the Cardinal second-sacker says golf and the diamond sport develop a different set of muscles and is convinced that golf interferes with the muscle development of a baseball artist.

Speaking from a pitcher's viewpoint, Sam Jones is of the belief that golf makes a hurler muscle-bound and must necessarily destroy a free and open swing.

In foregoing golf, Hornsby has everything to gain and nothing to lose by batting titles to his credit during his career. Rogers has eclipsed Wagner's record of long standing and is now pointing at Ty Cobb's nine straight in the American League. Therefore, golf is "out."

GARDEN CLUB DRIVE MEETING SUCCESS

One hundred and sixty-five members for the Xenia Garden Club, were obtained during the first two days of the week's canvass of the club over the city for 400 members. The solicitation is progressing splendidly, according to Mrs. Charles A. Keible, president.

Shrubbery has been planted and grass seed sown on the Court House lawn and the Home Avenue park is being cared for. Paper boys and other children of the city are requested by the Garden Club to not walk on the Court House lawn or any other plot where the work is in progress or on residence lawns.

At the opening session of the Gazette and Republican Cooking School Mrs. Brown-Lewers will talk on "Making Ends Meet," and will discuss a real working plan for making a budget.

On Tuesday, and at all of the four sessions of the school, this famous cook will prepare delicious foods which will be given to some lucky members of her classes in Xenia.

Mrs. Brown-Lewers is a famous cake baker and has in her cake-baking program some delicious plain cakes, inexpensive and easily made, and also some more elaborate and unusual ones which will interest the expert cake bakers of Xenia as well as the less experienced ones who attend.

MODISH MITZI—Mitzi Views the Furs For Spring
By JAY V. JAY

This friend of Dad's who is coming from England—just what sort of celebrity is he? Dad refuses all further information, besides he's out of town and can't be bullied. Mitzi has her own opinions—

And Mitzi goes shopping for new fur neckpieces. This one in the first sketch was ermine and monkey. This is chiffon and fox. Both the tight collar and the long scarf are smart and good looking.

This is the jolly little fur collar that will be worn with tailored suits this season. It is being shown in badger, fox, dyed fitch, mole and ermine—the single touch of softness to the tailored suit.

But Mitzi's dreams betray her. Mitzi is firmly convinced that the celebrity will be a portrait painter and that he will do a striking likeness of her called "Lady in a Fur Neckpiece".... yes, the one on the bed post!

CLARKS CANCEL AND SHROYER CUBS WILL PLAY RESERVES HERE

The Xenia Reserves will play the Dayton Shroyer Cubs in the first game of a pre-arranged three game series Sunday afternoon at Washington Park. The future games will not be played on consecutive Sundays but each will be played on the home diamond.

The Cubs and Reserves indulged in a series of two games last year but the matter of supremacy is still undecided as each nine succeeded in coping one game.

The Cubs handed Xenia the short end of a 4 to 1 score in the first clash last season, but in the final game the Reserves turned the tables and won by a 3 to 2 margin, in extra innings.

Tewell, star hurler of the Cubs, who gave the Xenia nine its only defeat in the series last year will probably again get the call for mound duty with Buddy Franks on the receiving end. Franks was given a short try out with the St. Louis Nationals during an exhibition game at Dayton last year and although failing to make the grade is considered far better than the average type of catchers.

"I wouldn't take a million dollars for the good Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has done for me. I have finished the course and can say I am entirely cured of very severe indigestion, bloating and colic attacks I suffered from for many years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. "NOT POSSIBLE TO CLASSIFY" BY MACK SAUER

HIS ONION QUEEN

The wrist watch on the dainty ankle of Xenia's fattest beauty had just struck twelve and it was evening in Morning Glory's quiet little apartment. Not a sound could be heard as the limited roared by just outside her window and a pair of twin babies screamed across the hall. Amid the deep thunder there was a thick silence.

Down the river in a palatial row-boat came Hick Begory, a Socrates for beauty and a grasshopper for common sense, but a wealthy onion king of Nevada. He was fragrant with onions and had never taken time to read the ads in the magazines about improper breathing—that is the aroma of it all.

His knock at Morning Glory's door was uncalm. For the smell of onions almost knocked poor Morning Glory down. She held out her right hand, like a dog extending a thorn-pierced paw, and her lips parted like the dipper of a steamshovel. "Pleased to meet you," she said.

Soon they were padding along in his row-boat. Above the hum of the motor in the boat her voice raised. "Doesn't the moon remind you of a September toadstool with an attack of Gangrene?" Her onion king was turning her head. He had his strong points.

In the darkness there was little light in the boat. Yet little he expected, for she was no light article, weighing a jolly 200. He had promised to take her to a quiting frolic at Bowersville but persuaded her not to go, saying he got few comforts from such an affair.

Suddenly he gained strength from the onions and, putting up a strong front, he said: "Oh, you great big overgrown calf, will you be my onion queen?"

It was too much. Throwing the oars away, she ejaculated, shaking the mosquitoes off of her ears: "You big bunch of onion tops, you know I will. My grandmother raised ten children, my mother raised garden stuff, but we will just raise onions."

And so they went away on their honeymoon on the traction-car. (To Be Continued)

GAS BUGGIES—The Least Said The Better

APPLICATIONS FOR CAMP KNOX STILL BEING ACCEPTED

County Chairman H. D. Smith has received instructions from headquarters at Columbus to continue the Greene County enlistment campaign for the "Citizens' Military Training Camp at Camp Knox, Ky., for this summer despite the fact the county's allotted quota has already been surpassed.

Greene County as well as all other counties in the state which have filled their quota are instructed to continue the enrollment since the state quota was but slightly more than half filled at the last report on April 23.

Applicants from Greene County will continue to be accepted until the state quota is completed. After that time, candidates will only be admitted to the period of training as alternates.

Greene County has over-subscribed its quota of eighteen by five, and all others wishing to enter the camp this year, are urged by Chairman Smith to fill out application blanks as early as possible to insure their admittance this summer.

Greene County's delegation to the camp was increased by three during the past week. The latest applicants to be accepted are: Victor D. Bruner, Osborn; C. C. Henrie, Xenia and Walter I. Marshall, Jamestown.

SENTENCED TO JAIL BY MILITARY COURT

L. W. Reel, Xenia, private in Company L, 147th Infantry, Ohio National Guard, was sentenced to spend 130 days in the Greene County Jail at a summary court martial held at the Armory, East Main Street, Monday night on thirteen violations of military regulations. He was fined $10 on each charge by Lieutenant John Berger and committed to the jail for failure to pay the fines. He pleaded guilty to each charge.

Numbered among the thirteen counts upon which he was sentenced were charges of absence from drill, absent without leave, absent from federal inspection, and breaking rest, the latter two, the more serious. Reel was arrested several weeks ago on a charge of absconding himself from regular drill, but affected his escape from the armory at court martial proceedings and left the city. He was captured by police Saturday, according to Captain Leroy John.

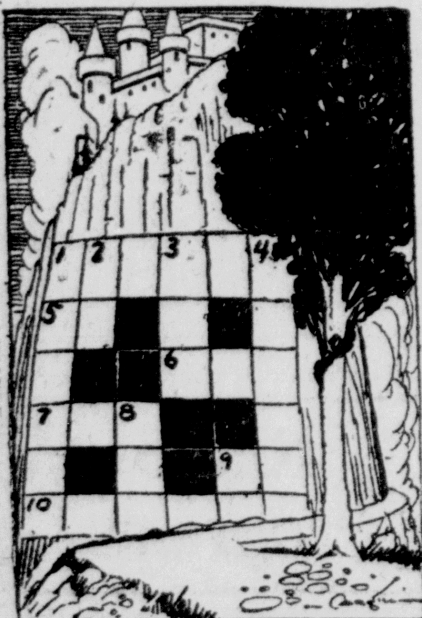

TO GIVE ADDRESS

Bucyrus, April 15—Rev. Ernest Fiedler Johann, of the St. John's Reformed Church, has been selected to deliver the annual Memorial Day address Saturday, May 30. Other preparations for proper observance of the day are in progress.

YESTERDAY'S JUNIOR PUZZLE ANSWER

BRINGING UP FATHER

Michael's Marriage

By MICHAEL

CHAPTER XVI.

On Saturday evening Michael called Mrs. Winston on the telephone. After the customary remarks, he said: "I'm very sorry Aunt Mary (he always called her that), but I can't come to dinner tomorrow. I'd like to, awfully May I come next Sunday?"

"Why, of course, Michael, if you can't come tomorrow. Where have you been keeping yourself? We haven't seen a thing of you. I hope you're keeping out of mischief. You know that you can come to dinner or luncheon for that matter, whenever you like." Mrs. Winston talked like a machine-gun.

"I've been intending to come over," he murmured, weakly. "How is everyone?"

"Dr. Winston is having trouble with his stomach again."

"Perhaps he has been taking some of his own medicine," Michael laughed.

He was immensely relieved when he was able to restore the receiver, but was possessed by a sense of guilt. "I ought not to treat Aunt Mary that way," he told himself. He resolved to visit the Winstons before the following Sunday.

Michael had planned to arrive at the Capper home early on Sunday afternoon in hopes of catching Alonzo and persuading him to remain for tea. He knew Lonnie's aversion for tea parties, particularly those of his sister; and he remembered with a smile how he had lapsed Alonzo until recently. He grinned as he realized that he was now doing things he had sworn never to do—and all because of a woman.

But this plan of getting to the Capper house early fell through. He slept till noon, and then idled through his bath and breakfast and his newspaper, so that it was nearly three o'clock before he suddenly realized that it was time for him to dress. This he accomplished in less time than when he Blanton, as he attired himself in a sack suit of a dark weave instead of the frock coat and trousers to match. He was doubtful for a moment about the advisability of this, fearing that Lilah might remember he had "dressed up" for the first affair. He knew that girls like to have men "dress up" for them. But he was willing to brave her displeasure in order to insure himself comfort. Michael was disquieted by the oft repeated definition of a gentleman, "one who is always comfortable in a dress suit."

To reach the Capper residence it was necessary to pass through the section of the city in which the residence of Dr. Winston was located. Fate decreed that Michael's car should stop alongside that of the doctor, in which his wife was riding with him, at a corner. Their eyes met at the same time. Michael smiled and waved to "Aunt Mary," with his cheeks flushing. "What must they think?" he asked himself. (To be continued.)

PAINLEVE MADE NEW FRENCH PREMIER

CHAMBER PRESIDENT ACCEPTS OFFICE TO SUCCEED HERRIOT

Will Immediately Form
Cabinet—Rumor Recall
Of Caillaux.

Paris, April 15.—President of the chamber of deputies Paul Painleve this afternoon accepted the appointment of premier and said he would attempt to form a cabinet.

Coincident with announcement that Painleve would become premier, there were widely circulated but unconfirmed reports in the chamber of deputies that Painleve had telegraphed Joseph Caillaux to come to Paris and would offer him the ministry of finance.

The appointment of Painleve by President Doumergue culminated one of the most perplexing political problems of the French republic. Painleve previously had declined to take the premiership but was influenced by leaders of the radical Socialist party to alter his determination.

He has strong support among the various factions in the senate and chamber of deputies although it was predicted in parliamentary circles that any cabinet he might form, or any one else might form—would not last more than a month.

NEWLY NAMED JUDGE IN FATAL ACCIDENT

Bristol, Va., April 14.—Judge Joseph L. Kelley, appointed only a week ago to the Virginia supreme court by Governor Trinkle, accidentally shot and killed himself at his home here this morning with a shotgun. The jurist had taken the gun, according to members of the family, to shoot some rats which infested his premises. In going down a flight of stairs the gun was discharged in some manner not disclosed. The entire charge entered his left side and he died 45 minutes later.

HELD IN LARGE BOND FOR DRY VIOLATION

Cincinnati, April 15.—John Marcus is in jail here today, unable to give $15,000 bond for his appearance in the United States district court at St. Louis, May 6, at which time he will be tried on the charge of conspiring to violate the Volstead act. It is alleged that Marcus, Mrs. Imogene Remus, wife of George Remus, "king of the bootleggers" and others were responsible for the withdrawal of $91 gallons of whiskey from the Jack Daniels distillery at St. Louis, liquor which eventually was sold illicitly. The Daniels distillery was purchased by Remus and Mrs. Remus, according to the government. Remus is now serving sentence in Atlanta federal prison.

Marcus will be taken to St. Louis in a few days.

ATTIC OGRE BE-HEADED FOR LONG MURDER LIST-ATTEMPTS SPEECH

Hanover, Germany, April 15.—Fritz Haarmann, self confessed slayer of twenty-six young men and boys, was beheaded at sun rise today. The "attic ogre," convicted of fourteen of his many killings, was executed on the guillotine. Hanover is the only city in Prussia where the guillotine has replaced the head man's axe. Haarmann walked calmly to the scaffold. He said he repented his sins and started to make a speech, addressing the limited number of officers and official witnesses permitted to see the execution. He got no further than:

"Now gentlemen, I want—when he was interrupted by the prosecutor, who told him he was not allowed to say anything further. The condemned man looked blankly from one witness to another, an ex-

DEATH CLAIMS JOHN S. SARGENT, FAMOUS PORTRAIT PAINTER

Tragedy Comes On Eve Of His
First Trip To America
In Many Years

London, April 15.—John Singer Sargent, famous portrait painter died at his Chelsea home here today, a few hours after suffering a stroke. He was 69 years of age.

Sargent's death was lent a peculiar tragedy by falling on the eve of his first trip to his homeland in many years. It would have been a virtual repatriation of the celebrated artist. He has been without an American passport for years but only recently went to the American consulate and filled out his papers and secured a passport.

Although he was an American citizen, for years he had been a self-exile. Sargent became the most famous portrait painter of his day. He was born in Florence, Italy, in 1856 and was educated in Italy and France. His study as an artist was mainly under Carolus Duran and he was but 23 years old when his work was first exhibited at the Salon. Since that first success, in 1879, his paintings were continually exhibited in the famous art salons of the continent.

He was a member of the Royal Scottish water color society and in recognition of his merit was made a royal academician in 1897. He was an officer of the French legion and held honorary degrees from Oxon and Cambridge.

GOVERNMENT WILL REST POLICE CASE

Cincinnati, O., April 15.—U. S. District Attorney Haveth E. Mau says that the government probably will complete its testimony late today in the case of the three defendants now on trial in connection with grafting by members of the city police department. Fifty-five of the 71 defendants already have pleaded guilty.

The defense will base its plea upon the fact that witnesses for the government, were mostly denizens of the "black belt."

pression of unspeakable disappointment coming over his face. He evidently had planned a dramatic exit after a bombastic speech which attendants at the jail had heard him rehearsing for weeks at night in his cell.

The executioner's helpers advanced toward the killer and started to lay hands on him, but Haarmann realized that he had but a moment left for drama.

"No, please leave me alone. I am unafraid," he said, and unflinching, he stepped up the scaffold and walked to the block. With lightning swiftness he was strapped beneath the bright, black blade.

The actual execution lasted exactly 45 seconds. German newspapers today withheld details of his execution. The Hanover press merely stated that Haarmann had been executed.

WOULD CREATE TOO MANY JOBS GOVERNOR STATES ON SLAYING

Kills Thirty Two Bills In All—Forty Are Not
Acted Upon

Columbus, April 15.—Governor Donahey today vetoed the Lipp bill, proposing to create a new office of motor vehicle commission and to transfer issue of auto tags to county auditors.

Veto of four other measures brings the total disapproved to 32. About 40 other measures remain to be acted upon.

The governor said he killed the Lipp bill because of the jobs it would create. "A more beautiful dream of the political boss cannot be conceived who lies awake at night planning job after job to create a huge political holding position for his henchmen in ready overburdened taxpayer," the governor declared in his veto message. He renewed his demand that the task of licensing be transferred to the Ohio state penitentiary where the work could be done by convicts at little expense.

The measure also attempts another indirect tax on the people the governor declared by its provision for collection of a fee of 15 cents for issuance of a license, which would cost the taxpayers 187,500 a year.

The governor also vetoed an item for $50,000 in the supplemental appropriation bill for additional expenses of distribution of auto tags by the secretary of state's office through sub agencies. The remainder of the bill was approved.

Rod and reel fishermen will be required to pay an annual license fee of one dollar, under provisions of the Edwards bill which is one of six measures which will become a law at midnight tonight, as far as executive action is concerned, by failure of the governor to act within the required 10 days. The bill does not affect pole fishermen.

The governor said he took the action he did to "forestall forever a general fishermen's license bill which will take in everybody," and as "the best means to prevent the licensing of the ordinary pole fisherman who does not use a reel."

"Fishing is the only free sport remaining the only recreation left for a poor man out of a job to engage in to forget his troubles," the governor said. "I hope it will always remain free. If ever an attempt is made to extend this licensing feature from fancy, professional rod and reel fishermen to pole and line anglers, generally, I hope the common people of the state will rise up in arms to prevent it."

Other bills which will be allowed to become law by lapse are:

By Senator Chaffee, Van Wert, permitting relative or friend of a blind person to enter ballot booth to mark ballot.

By Senator Hopple, Bucyrus, clarifying sections of the highway law relative to power of director of highways to move or relocate utility lines in roads.

By Senator Collier, Cuyahoga, permitting municipalities to vote special levies, up to one tenth of a mill for playground purposes.

By Mrs. Maud C. Walitt, Cuyahoga, permitting boards of education to operate lunch rooms.

Two other bills vetoed by the governor were:

By Representative Krueger, Cuyahoga, giving boards of education in charter city school districts authority to issue bonds for erection of administration buildings.

By Representative Cady, Hamilton, empowering board of rapid transit commissioners of Cincinnati, to sell abandoned property acquired for subway purposes.

CHAPLIN'S EX-WIFE WED
New York, April 15.—Mildred Harris, screen actress, who divorced Charlie Chaplin in 1920, declared today she was "very, very happy" as the bride of E. Terrence McGovern, wealthy Florida real estate man. She told friends she and McGovern had slipped down to Mexico last November 29 and had secretly wed. "Then we came back to New York," she added, "last week went to Greenwich, Conn., and were married all over again. Friends learned she and McGovern had been engaged for almost two years."

EXPECT MUCH STRIFE WILL MARK WIND-UP SESSION OF SOLONS

Bible Bill, Gas Tax and
Donahey Appointments
To Draw Fire

Columbus, O., April 15.—Legislators were returning to Columbus today for what is expected to be the wind-up of the 1925 session of the general assembly. Despite the plan of leaders to close up the work of the two houses before Friday night, there are indications that there may be as much strife crowded into the two days as characterized most of the work of the sessions.

Most of the questions of confirmation of Governor Donahey's main appointments and the passage of the Buchanan Bible bill by the senate and the passage of measures over the governor's veto, will supply the majority of the fireworks.

The Republican majority in the senate is expected to accept the challenge of Governor Donahey in his radio speech by promptly killing the governor's four major appointments according to predictions by political leaders. The appointments are now locked up in senate rule committee where there is reported to be a majority of two votes against reporting the nominations for confirmation. The fight for enactment of the Bible bill is believed to have been won.

Senate leaders are expected to permit the bill to be voted out of calendar committee so the majority favoring the measure can pass it along to Governor Donahey. Any delay in the passage of the bill would be looked upon as the signal for a filibuster by friends of the bill which might postpone final adjournment for an indefinite period.

The two houses are expected to stage a spirited fight over the question of passing the Brown gasoline tax bill over the governor's veto. Supporters of the bill are expected to be strong in the house, it is believed but the backers of the measure in the senate are worried over its prospects.

Question of passing the three tax relief bills over vetoes also must be decided.

No new measures are to be permitted before the two houses, if the leaders plan to "mop up" Friday, carries. Proposed constitutional amendments will fall by the wayside for lack of support, leaders believe.

The fight with Governor Donahey over the utilities commission may be broadened by an expected move in the senate to revive the Lipp bill, already passed by the house, which would give the commission power of appointment and removal over its employees a power now held by Director of Commerce Cyrus Locher, a Donahey appointee.

The general assembly, after the windup, will adjourn until March 1, 1926, when reports of special committees on codification of the elections and tax laws are to be considered.

W. M. IRELAND NAMED SUPERINTENDENT OF HIGHWAYS IN COUNTY

W. M. Ireland, Xenia, has been appointed State Highway Superintendent in Greene County to succeed the late B. K. Ritenour.

Mr. Ireland has been employed by the highway department as foreman on general maintenance and construction work for the past two years. Previous to this he was associated with contractors in the construction of macadam roads and helped to build the greater portion of the macadam roads in the county. The state maintains sixty-three miles of roads in Greene County, of which eight miles are re-inforced concrete, fifty miles macadam and five miles surface treated gravel. The latter extends from Fairfield west to the Montgomery County line. As the maintenance of macadam roads presents problems peculiar to itself it is fortunate to have a man of Mr. Ireland's experience and ability to supervise this work, the department announces. Mr. Ireland will assume his new duties April 16.

OPPOSITION LOSES INITIAL EFFORT TO BLOCK PROPOSAL

Commission Refuses To
Grant Postponement
Of Hearings

Washington, April 15.—Minority stockholders of the C. and O. railroad lost the first round today in their fight to block the gigantic Van Sweringen railroad merger, when the interstate commerce commission refused to grant a postponement of hearings on the proposed consolidation.

Washington, April 15.—The greatest railroad merger in modern transportation history, hung in the balance here today as the interstate commerce commission began consideration of the Van Sweringen plans for consolidating five big roads into a single unified system. It is a "billion dollar" proposition, involving two men under fifty years of age, who began life in Cleveland as newsboys.

The properties involved, contain more than sixteen thousand miles of tracks and slinkings and embrace the Erie, the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, the Hocking Valley and the Pere Marquette, operating in ten states.

The total estimate of the investment in these properties is $1,081,000,000.

The commission was confronted at the outset with a demand from minority stock holders in the C. and O. that the proceedings be continued until Chancery court at Richmond passes on the legality of the merger. Thomas B. Gay, their attorney, presented his argument today and was followed by W. A. Colston, attorney for the Van Sweringen brothers.

Sitting with the commission for the first time was Thomas Woodlock, whose nomination the senate twice refused to confirm. He is a former director in the Pere Marquette. At the time of his nomination the commission was understood to be split five to five on the proposed merger.

"The proposed grouping is a definite step toward a realization along natural and logical lines of the principles of railway readjustment which the transportation act encourages," Colston declared today.

According to Colston the Nickel Plate, Chesapeake and Ohio and the Hocking Valley are the nucleus for the proposed unified system which provides arteries in the country's main sweep of traffic from western gateways besides an outlet to the port of New York and routes giving direct access from Norfolk and Newport News to the tip of the lower Michigan peninsula.

The system, he said, will have the shortest route between Buffalo and Chicago, south of Lake Erie, the second shortest between New York and Chicago and between New York and Cleveland, while comparing favorably with distances to other points over other systems.

Colston's main contention was that the proposed acquisition of control is in harmony with both the policy and purposes of the transportation act and with the recommendations made by the interstate commerce commission in its annual reports made to congress in 1918 and 1919.

BATTLE LINES ARE BEING DRAWN FOR TRIAL OF WHEELER

Bitter Legal Fight Expected In
Attempt To Convict Montana
Senator

Great Falls, Mont., April 15.—Battle lines were being tightly drawn today in what promises to be one of the bitterest legal fights in Montana's history—the trial of Senator Burton K. Wheeler, on charges of having violated the federal law by appearing after his election before a department as paid attorney for a client. The trial opens here tomorrow.

Wheeler, vice presidential candidate on the LaFollette ticket was indicted more than a year ago. He was charged specifically with receiving a fee from Gordon Campbell, Montana oil operator, to seek oil and gas permits from the interior department. Conviction carries imprisonment of not more than two years and a fine of not more than $10,000.

Not since the Dempsey Gibbons fight has Great Falls been so astir as it was today over the Wheeler trial. Crowds were collecting today for the thrills that were promised by attorneys for the government and Wheeler.

The government staff has refused to discuss the case other than to declare its complete readiness to start the trial tomorrow.

Wheeler has Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, the famous Tea pot Dome prosecutor and S. C. Ford, formerly Republican attorney general of Montana, to head his defense, which will be based on practically identical grounds as before the Borah committee.

All of Wheeler's witnesses with a few exceptions, appeared before the committee.

"We are going to stand on the evidence before the Borah committee to prove Wheeler's innocence," said Walsh.

WAR BRIDE DIES

Albany, April 15.—Mrs. C. A. Wilcox, 79 who recently died at her home here, was a Civil War bride. A few weeks after their marriage, news came that her husband had been wounded and she walked 40 miles, through the mountains of West Virginia, to a Confederate hospital to nurse him.

The blaze did little damage, but produced a heavy smoke which gave it the aspect of a serious fire.

New York, April 15.—A spectacular fire which forced hundreds of persons to flee from their homes and threatened many nearby buildings, today destroyed the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Harlem. Damage was estimated at $500,000. Two firemen were injured and sixteen others had a narrow escape from death when the roof of the church collapsed.

TROOPS IN PURSUIT OF ASSAILANTS OF KING BORIS' PARTY

Two Members of King's
Party Slain—General
Also Murdered

Sofia, April 15.—Bulgarian troops today were in pursuit of the bandit gang, believed made up of communists, who attacked King Boris' automobile and killed two of his party as the Bulgarian ruler was returning from Orkhanie to Sofia Tuesday.

The attack came almost at the same time that General Kymon Gheorgidif, leading member of the government party, was slain by two young men, as he left a church in Sofia. The assailants, believed also to be communists, escaped through the crowd.

The chauffeur of the king's car and Hlchoff, a young officer of the national museum, were killed in the bandit attack. It is not believed the bandits knew they were attacking the king. He showed the greatest courage according to other members of the party. When the chauffeur was mortally wounded, King Boris seized the wheel and piloted the car down a dangerous hill. He caught up with a motor bus which had turned and fled toward Orkhanie when the bandits attacked and leaped from his own car into the bus. According to one report the ruler was slightly wounded, a bullet just grazing his lips.

The bus sped to Orkhanie and troops were sent after the bandits. A battalion of soldiers armed with machine guns then accompanied the king to Sofia.

BAND PLAYS WHILE PAIR IS HANGED

Durham, Eng., April 15.—While a Salvation Army band played "Nearer My God To Thee," upon request, Henry Graham, 42, and Thomas Shelton, 25, were hanged from the same gallows at the same moment today.

Both were in good humor and exchanged jokes as the noose tightened. Graham murdered his wife and Shelton killed his sweetheart.

MARKS AND RUBLES MARKED WORTHLESS

Washington, April 15.—German paper marks and the ruble bonds of the Imperial Russian government were officially registered as "worthless" securities by the bureau of internal revenue today.

Federal tax payers holding paper marks are allowed deductions in their income tax returns for 1924, equivalent to the amount invested which will not be recovered when the obligations are redeemed, the bureau ruled.

HOTEL GUESTS DRIVEN OUT WHEN FIRE STARTS; CHURCH DESTROYED

Washington, April 15.—More than 300 guests fled to the street early this morning when fire broke out in the St. Joseph Hotel, Sixth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue. Among them was a party of New York school girls visiting the capital on an Easter holiday trip.

Mrs. Sarah Sneller, 73, an invalid of Syracuse, N. Y., was carried out of her smoke filled room. Maurice Lehman, 31, a salesman of Brooklyn, collapsed while fighting the fire.

RELATIVES OBJECT TO DECEMBER UNION OF AGED VETERAN

The marriage of Mrs. Janet J. Wentz, 1720 Lagonda Avenue, Springfield, and Daniel C. Wilder, Columbus banker, which was solemnized at the home of the bride, Saturday was of interest in Xenia.

Mrs. Wilder has been active in W. R. C. work and Mr. Wilder is a member of the G. A. R., and both attended the annual reunions at the O. S. and S. O. Home, here, and other occasions at the institution.

The marriage of Mrs. Wentz and Mr. Wilder was severely criticized by a daughter of Mr. Wilder, who is seventy years of age, declared "he was old enough to take care of himself."

The marriage was the culmination of a romance of less than a year. Mr. Wilder met Mrs. Wentz at a G. A. R. encampment in Milwaukee about two years ago. After the death of his first wife a year ago, the acquaintance was renewed and the marriage was the result.

Mr. Wilder is president and one of the organizers of The Ohio Building and Loan Company, of Columbus. He is also past department commander of the Ohio G. A. R.

INSURE!

The moving spirit of many a business is one man. The great value represented by this man ought to be at least as adequately insured as replaceable physical property.

Men today, insure property because the definite, tangible worth of property has long been realized and appreciated. In many a business, however, the greatest value is not in the property, but in the men that manage the business and quite often in some one key man around whom the whole business centers. As a rule the property is insured on somewhere near its real worth but the man isn't. The wisdom of taking an occasional inventory of the material property of the business is generally recognized. Similar inventories should be taken of the human property of the business. The services of the head of the business and of the important managers in it should be appraised and their lives should be insured at some figure that will, in case of their death, bring to the business some adequate recompense for their loss.

The problem of insuring the man power of a business as well as its physical assets is a problem that is today receiving increased attention from financiers and bankers as well as from most up-to-date insurance men.

OLD QUESTION OF DISPOSITION OF GREENE COUNTY'S DEPENDENT CHILDREN COMES UP

Disposition of Greene County's dependent children formed the subject of a conference between members of the Division of Charities, State Department of Public Welfare, County Commissioners, County Auditor R. O. Wead, Juvenile Judge S. C. Wright, and members of the board of trustees of the County Children's Home and of the County Board of Visitors, in the commissioners' office Wednesday morning.

Although the discussion at times grew heated, the meeting adjourned at noon without having definitely settled the problem of reducing the population of the home without increasing the expense to taxpayers. Another conference will be held on a date yet to be selected when the problem will be given further consideration.

The conference was the result of a controversy between county officials and members of the state which has been hanging fire several months. The capacity of the home is about forty children although there are now fifty-two children kept at the institution.

The crowded conditions at the institution, the fact that some of the children should be with their mothers and that others should be given the opportunity to be placed with private families, resulted in former Judge J. C. Marshall committing many children to the state board, which found them homes and certified the bill to the county. When County Auditor Wead refused to honor the last bill presented, the state board brought a mandamus suit to compel payment which is now in supreme court.

While payment of this bill is pending, the state board has refused to accept other children from this county and Judge Wright ascended to office to face the Home Board, occupants and unable to assign them to homes through the state board. Mrs. Belle Greve, superintendent of charities of the state board, told the conferees the state board is anxious to co-operate with the county so far as its budget will permit but is unable to accept dependent children from Greene County as long as a bill of $6,000 remains unpaid.

H. H. Shirer, chief of the institution inspection bureau and Mrs. Lois Olcott, Xenia, welfare worker for the state board, also attended the meeting and inspected the home. They said beds are too close together in the dormitories due to the crowded condition and that hallways are being utilized to care for the extra children.

MAC MILLAN ARCTIC PARTY WILL VISIT UNKNOWN REGIONS

Washington, April 15.—The MacMillan Arctic expedition which will dash into the frozen north this summer, with the co-operation of naval aviators is to be a general exploration expedition that will cover not only the million square miles between Alaska and the Pole, but also unknown regions which the eye of man has never yet beheld. This was disclosed at the first definite announcement from MacMillan himself in announcing his plans. He has submitted his plan in detail to the National Geographic Society, under whose auspices the trip is to be undertaken.

Under MacMillan's directions reconnaissance flights will be made with amphibian planes over the central part of Ellsmere Island and Grantland, the central part of the great Greenland ice cap, the whole interior of Baffin Island and the northern part of Labrador. "I believe," said Captain MacMillan, "that the practical way of erasing these unknown areas on the maps today, is by use of airplanes, particularly the amphibians which are capable of landing safely on water, ice and land."

"I plan to establish a base at Etah, about seven hundred miles from the pole, which a good strong ship can reach by August 1. I expect to leave Wiscasset, Me., about June 27, proceed along the Nova Scotia coast to Sydney, there take to our coal supply for the season and then continue up through the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the Labrador coast and from 55 degrees north latitude across to the Danish town of Julianehaab, South Greenland. With Julianehaab as a base we shall study the remains of the old Norse settlements established in South Greenland some 1500 years ago. It was from this point that the early Norsemen are said to have sailed away centuries ago to discover America."

"After studying these ruins the party will proceed to Godthaab, Back of this town," said MacMillan's report, "are about ninety farms and 24 stone churches. We want to prove a similarity between the houses built there by the Norsemen and those in Labrador rebuilt by Eskimos to have been built by strange people who came in from the sea in open boats without masts or sails. I believe we ought to find in Labrador the first authentic proof of these Norsemen who came to America 300 years before Columbus."

Mrs. Charles Fanning, Mrs. H. M. Fudge, Mrs. W. P. Maxwell and Mrs. F. E. Filson, motored to Springfield, Tuesday, and visited Mrs. W. H. Naffziger, wife of the pastor of the local Lutheran Church, who has been seriously ill. Mrs. Naffziger is improving.

The Rev. Frank Deloe, Springfield, will give an illustrated lecture on Alaska, at the First Lutheran Church, Friday night. His talk will be illustrated with slides of the Alaskan country and the public is invited to attend the lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McGrew, 107 Bellbrook Avenue, are the parents of a daughter, born Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Eliza Smith, has moved to her summer home in New Jasper, after spending the winter months with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. George Davis, East Main Street.

Mr. John Reed, West Main Street, is ill with an attack of grip.

Mrs. Lenora J. Wolf returned Monday evening from Los Angeles, Calif., where she has been visiting for some time with relatives and friends.

condition and that hallways are being utilized to care for the extra children.

Judge Wright told the conference children could be cared for this summer but that the need for quarters would be pressing when winter comes. County Auditor Wead said the county is unable to spend large sums of money to the state for care of the children, declaring the county would go bankrupt. He said $12,000 was expended in this way in 1921.

Prosecutor J. C. Marshall, former juvenile judge, defended his position before the conference with an explanation of the need the court faces of providing quarters for dependent children coming to its attention.

De-population of the institution by a systemized process of farming out children in private homes, would clear the situation here, according to Mr. Shirer. Thus, instead of the children being committed to the state board to be placed in private homes, these homes should be sought out and the children found accommodations here.

This duty does not devolve upon the juvenile court, he said, but should be taken care of by the trustees of the home after the court has committed them. The homes in which children are placed must be investigated and properly approved before they can be permitted to take children, he said.

In many counties a placing agency acts in this capacity, taking children turned over by the board. In other places the superintendent makes his own investigation and disposition of the children. Such action by the local board would clarify the situation. Mr. Shirer said and the state officials rejected suggestions that the home be enlarged, that a detention home be erected or other provisions made for the care of the children.

BABSON ANALYZES FLORIDA BOOM AND MOVEMENT TO SOUTH

Babson Park, Mass., April 15.—Roger W. Babson today returned from his winter office in the hills of Central Florida. He was immediately asked by reporters and others regarding the great boom in Florida—whether or not it is based on anything permanent and how long it will last. Mr. Babson's reply to these questions is as follows:

"There is no doubt," said he, "that a boom is gradually developing in Florida which can almost be compared to the California boom of a decade ago; the Duluth and Central West boom of the early 90's and the rush to the Klondike a few years later. Furthermore this Florida boom is based upon something besides oranges and grape fruit, or early lettuce and tomatoes; but rather upon the habit of spending a portion of one's winter in a tropical land. This may be, to a certain extent, a fad; but no more so than the owning of an automobile. Both give a combination of pleasure and increased efficiency. As almost every respectable family has an automobile, so a large percentage of such families east of the Mississippi are beginning to feel that they must go to Florida for from two weeks to four months in the winter. As in many cases this is increasing the length of life of those who do go to Florida by from 5 to 10 years, it can be seen that there is a real basis for Florida's boom. Florida has come to its own and—boom or no boom—is destined to have a great future."

"As to how long the present continued mounting of prices will continue, no one knows; but surely, in most sections the real boom is just beginning. The national publicity which Florida has received this year has awakened an interest never before equaled. Without doubt next year will show a great increase over this year and for some years to come the numbers going to Florida should continue to increase. Of course, prices cannot always go up. Some time prices will reach a peak. Then everyone will start to sell and down they'll go. As a boy, I was brought up in Gloucester, Mass., and saw the great boom in seashore property which extended from Newport, R. I., to Bar Harbor, Maine. Humble people who had farms of 50 acres which they valued at $100 per acre sold for $2,000 per acre; but did they really make any money? No, because after having the money in the bank for a year or two they took it out and bought seashore lots with their $100,000 which they still have. Only today they have but five acres in place of their fifty! Land at Magnolia, Mass., where I worked when a boy went in 10 years from one cent a square foot up to one cent, and is now back to twenty cents. Estates in Newport which cost $200,000 can now be bought for $50,000 or even less. The same thing may be repeated in Florida. Some day the boom will break; but unless something happens, it should continue several years longer. Moreover, going to Florida winters may become a great new industry like the Movie Industry, the Automobile Industry and the Radio Industry. If so those who now get in rich should make a great deal of money."

Mr. Babson was then asked to what he refers by "unless something happens." To this question he replied: "I am troubled about two things: first, the gambling spirit and the wide open conditions existing in Miami. No one realizes better than I that a real fundamental basis exists for Miami becoming a great city. Five years ago, when it did not have so many friends, I urged the people of that city, at a meeting of its Chamber of Commerce, to have faith and invest their money in Miami. But unless Miami watches its step and keeps clean it may suffer collapse. The people of Miami should study the history of New Orleans, Saratoga and similar sporting cities. The policy of 'giving people what they want' pays for only a little while. It is a boomerang in the end. It ultimately drives out the best people and the town is left like a fallen woman. I have high hopes for Miami and say this only in her interests. Then there is the constant possibility of a Florida freeze. There was one in 1880 and another in 1895. There may be one next year and it may not come again for twenty years; but when it does come values in many sections will surely freeze likewise. Of course in some sections, such as the 'Ridge' from Haines City to Sebring, should be immune, as many believe will be the case, a freeze might send values up in such sections. A freeze, however, is much like a tornado—no one knows when it will come or where it will strike.

"Florida people should not forget that California still exists. Although California is much further from the center of population than is Florida, yet it has certain advantages over the latter state. Southern California and the entire coast has a much better all the year climate than has Florida. Moreover, California must some day profit greatly from the awakening of China, India and the Far East. Now in most sections of Florida land values are still much below similar property in Southern California. As, however, Florida values continue to climb, they will equal or exceed California prices. Then people will again flock to California as Florida has no more of a monopoly on climate than it has on oranges!

"My mother used to say, 'Every dog has its day' and without doubt Florida something happens, Florida will, da is beginning to have her day. Undoubtedly the next few years, offer the greatest opportunities for money making ever known in America. On the other hand, those who have the true interests of Florida at heart will remember that it is righteousness and not realtors which truly make a nation. Real friends of Florida will endeavor to attract cultured, honest and thrifty people rather than merely rich men. True friends of Florida will stamp out gambling, horse racing and other questionable activities. True friends of Florida will keep out vice, liquor and irresponsible subdivision auctioneers who are merely legalized burglars. I believe you can spot them by their cheap signs on the highways. In closing, however, let me say that these true friends of Florida will be richly paid as a reward. For after all is said I believe that Florida during the next few years offers the greatest opportunities for money making of all the states in the Union."

condition and that hallways are being utilized to care for the extra children.

Judge Wright told the conference children could be cared for this summer but that the need for quarters would be pressing when winter comes. County Auditor Wead said the county is unable to spend large sums of money to the state for care of the children, declaring the county would go bankrupt. He said $12,000 was expended in this way in 1921.

Prosecutor J. C. Marshall, former juvenile judge, defended his position before the conference with an explanation of the need the court faces of providing quarters for dependent children coming to its attention.

De-population of the institution by a systemized process of farming out children in private homes, would clear the situation here, according to Mr. Shirer. Thus, instead of the children being committed to the state board to be placed in private homes, these homes should be sought out and the children found accommodations here.

COMMERCIAL AGENCY LOANS

SINCE the bringing into being of the Federal Intermediate Credit Banks there has been $60,835,421 of government money loaned to farmers throughout the United States. During the month of January the direct loans amounted to $4,206,931 and the re-discounts aggregated $2,688,045. Six out of the twelve banks did not make any direct loans in January. This means that commercial, not government, loan agencies are supplying the greater amount of funds needed. Louisville, Ky., had no discount operations in January.

RECOGNIZE SMALL RADIO USERS

THE right of the small radio user to filter the air for the program he desires has been happily recognized by Secretary Hoover. In a recent brief interview he announced that the energies of the radio division of his department would be largely devoted to seeing that the small fellow, both receiver and broadcaster, received a fair show. For that reason it is likely from now on that promoters who plan the erection of enormous blanketing broadcasting stations in various parts of the country will be obliged to prove to the department that the new service which they offer will not discommode or dismantle the smaller local broadcasting stations which serve a daily increasing group of interested listeners.

DETERMINED TO COLLECT

ALTHOUGH Washington is not broadcasting its message from the house tops, it can be said now, once and for all, that the American Government is out to collect its foreign debts, and it will not be deterred from that program. The republican party, in its national platform, laid down the law and the gospel that that plank for the collection of the debts was virtually dictated by the President. A new meeting of the National Debt Funding Commission has been called to take action. There will be a considerable amount of palaver. There will be delays, and social and courteous conversation with the representatives of the foreign nations which still stand aloof on their debt responsibilities. It is wholly possible they may gain time, but it can also be said that the most they can hope for is delay. They can never escape the payments. It is also well understood now that the American people will demand full reimbursement for the use of their money and that the foreign nations in cash will pay for each delay which they secure.

THE FUTURE

An unknown country which I may explore Waits for my coming. One no man has seen.
Beyond its gates no mortal foot has been.
Yet countless legions wait to tread its shore.
Dreaming of larger conquests than before,
Of sun-kissed valleys and of seas serene
Where storms or sorrows never intervene
And rest and joy stand smiling at the door.

Men call this land the future and they set
Their eager eyes upon its distant goals;
Some far tomorrow they shall cease to fret
And find the balm to soothe their weary souls.
And yet one dread of that far land I own,
I fear old age and being left alone.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

ECONOMICS AND IDEALISM
In times of stress or of confusion people who have a look upward may come to disdain the common vocations and activities of life as being sordid and hostile to noble living.
Just a word is offered to correct such a tendency.

The struggle for existence is for the mass of mankind an absorbing effort to avoid the margin of discomfort and bitter need. Unless life problems are solved where interest glows there will be no enthusiasm for moral nobility in these people.
Generosity and altruism thrive best when the giver himself is not drowning.

The field for ideal conduct is much wider in the area of buying, selling, tipping and transporting than in any other forms of human action. The walking hours are devoted chiefly to these things. If the moralists turn to amusement, intellectual avocations or to idle hours he will find a more barren exchange with his wards;
they are off duty and care less for guidance and advice.

The directive agencies such as legislature, school, church and lodge have nothing in themselves that merit our subservient obedience.
They are worthless as they all us it activity beyond the scope of their respective organizations. Each of them is like a lighthouse, established not for its own benefit but for the aid of people living and laboring beyond its borders.

A life policy wrought out in the forge of daily conduct will exhibit a solidity and dependability not to be attained by armchair manufacture. If a man can tell the truth in selling horses he will have character superior to the truth-teller fed on summer fiction.

The uplifter must be in most intimate contact with industry and all similar activities. He must steep his maxims in sweat.

"WORK!! I SEE NOTHIN' BUT WORK! THIS IS SURE GONNA BE A HARD YEAR FOR ME"

1905-Twenty Years Ago-1925

A letter was yesterday received from Booker T. Washington by the president of Wilberforce University which states he is planning to attend the commencement exercises in June. Ralph Clevenger, who recently returned from New York, where he took a course in interior decorating, has accepted a position with the Phillips interior decorating firm of Columbus. O. E. Bradfute was elected president at the last board of control meeting of the Ohio Experimental Station at Wooster, Ohio. Mayor George E. Lawrence, Toledo, a member of the board of trustees of the O. S. and S. O. Home, resigned at the last meetseedless raisins, one half cup of chopped dates (stoned) three and one-fourth cups of flour one-half cup of granulated sugar and spices to suit the individual taste (a good combination is: one-half teaspoon of ground nutmeg, one teaspoon of ground cinnamon and a pinch of ground clove.) A few chopped nut-meats may be added if desired. Turn this mixture into a greased can with a tight-fitting cover (many women use empty baking powder cans, the one-pound size) and tie on the lid with string wound around the can. Leave room in this mould for the mixture to rise (that is, do not fill the can more than three-quarters full). Stand the can in a saucepan containing enough boiling water to rise almost to the cover, weight it down to prevent turning on its side, put on the cover of the saucepan, and let the water continue to boil steadily for four hours replenishing as it boils away.

At the dinner hour, turn the pudding out of the mould and serve it hot with any desired hard sauce.

The inexperienced housekeeper often puzzles over the choice of a dinner dessert. Yet, if she will but stop to think, she will see that after all the choice must be within certain limits and that the problem is not such a hard one to solve. Last week I wrote about balancing a menu. Today I speak of the difference between a light dish and a heavy dish. If main portion of a dinner is hearty, then the dessert should be light; or if the dinner is light, the dessert may be heavy.

For instance, if you serve a soup, roast leg of lamb, mashed potatoes, green peas, vegetable salad and radishes, you would feel the inappropriateness of a heavy dessert such as Indian Meal Pudding, custard pie, steamed date pudding or a whipped cream dessert; you would naturally select a light fruit dessert for so heavy a meal—such as baked apples or strawberries.

On the other hand, in a dinner consisting of minced, left-over lamb on toast, baked potatoes, beets and lettuce you would feel the need of a hearty dessert such as he following: Steamed Raisin Pudding: Melt one

Today's Talks

HER
She used to take my hand and we would walk all over the little town and she would tell me all about that time when she was a little girl and what she did and the things she thought about.

I felt very close to her.
As I grew older and learned to do things about the house and in the yard, I took new interest in all that she did, for it seemed that she never rested a minute or ever complained about being tired.

Her spirit followed me to school the first day and then continued until the school days were over—until the larger schoolroom was reached and she had kissed me goodbye and went away forever leaving me quite alone in a misunderstanding world.

How well I remember her that last day, if all the gathered and most priceless pearls of the world had been placed about her throat, they could not have enhanced her beauty. Her shoulders were a little bent from the daily toil. But her face always held its serenity. The broad brow was full of furrows more lovely than the paths of the stars.

And you could feel the reflection of the gold in her heart when she smiled.

Whatever she did, wherever she might be, she did for someone else. She never spared herself. If she felt that someone somewhere was hungry, she could not eat.

But what a sense of humor she had! What a poet she was. And what an artist, as well as a lover of books. We sat propped up against the slabs of that little front porch many and many an hour, and talked of our favorite kings and queens from every corner of the world.

That was years ago. I thought of her a long time this morning, when upon waking very early I heard the mixed calls of the birds as they seemed to be practicing for the Spring Festival. I remembered how she loved them and how she told me of their gentle ways and how they ministered to happiness in an uneven world.

SIMPLICITY MARKS LECTURE COURSE OF GAZETTE-REPUBLICAN COOKING SCHOOL AT M'KINLEY SCHOOL FOUR DAYS NEXT WEEK

"Did you ever taste maple syrup cake? Have your luncheon guests ever exclaimed over the beauty of an Angel's Dream served on your table? These are a few of the items to appear on the program Mrs. Brown-Lewers the expert lecturer who will preside at the Gazette and Republican Cooking School in McKinley School Auditorium four afternoons next week.

In the four housekeeping and home economics lectures which Mrs. Brown-Lewers will give to her audience in Xenia, beginning next Tuesday afternoon, there are many heart throbs. Many mothers and even grandmothers who are worried with seemingly unsolvable problems in regard to the home and the family will get out of these appealing talks advice which is not hard to take, and inspiration for going ahead with a task which sometimes seems difficult to accomplish.

The entire program of lectures and cookery lessons is simple and practical. There are no sensational ideas to be advanced merely for the sake of arousing curiosity and drawing a crowd. It is the desire of Mrs. Brown-Lewers to actually help the women who take the time to attend her school, not merely to entertain or amuse them.

The subject of food in all its aspects will be taken up by her and carefully covered in the four talks and cookery lessons. Food values will be discussed, but not in a technical or scientific way which would be interesting to expert dietitians and domestic science teachers alone. Mrs. Brown-Lewers' course, however, will meet with the approval of this type of woman just as fully as it does with that of the average housewife whose deepest desire is to feed her family in the most satisfying and wholesome manner.

Housewives of other cities who have attended the schools conducted by Mrs. Brown-Lewers say that her home making talks and cookery lessons constitute a practical and helpful course, designed to meet the needs of every day housekeepers who are on the lookout for something new. They report that Mrs. Brown-Lewers' talks and methods lend novelty to a theme one is apt to consider old and worn out.

"It is not my purpose," says Mrs. Brown-Lewers, "to present immaterial and soon-forgotten lists of caloric values of food chemistry. What I hope to show in a practical and interesting manner is how meals not properly balanced, how good foods not wisely chosen, leave the family with that "hungry" all the time" feeling which makes the solicitous mother uncomfortable and unhappy, because in spite of her painstaking efforts and hard work, she is not accomplishing her aim, which is to keep her family well fed."

At the opening session of the Gazette and Republican Cooking School Mrs. Brown-Lewers will talk on "Making Ends Meet," and will discuss a real working plan for making a budget.

On Tuesday, and at all of the four sessions of the school, this famous cook will prepare delicious foods which will be given to some lucky members of her classes in Xenia. Mrs. Brown-Lewers is a famous cake baker and has in her cake-baking program some delicious plain cakes, inexpensive and easily made, and also some more elaborate and unusual ones which will interest the expert cake bakers of Xenia as well as the less experienced ones who attend.

It will thus be seen, that the course put on by the Gazette and Republican at McKinley School beginning Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, will be of inestimable value to the housewives of Xenia and that an exceedingly pleasant and profitable time will be enjoyed by all who attend the course.

HORNSBY AND SAD SAM JONES FOREGO ALL GOLF PLAYING

Rogers Hornsby, dean of National League sluggers, and reliable Sam Jones, star of the Yankee twirling staff are two players who take marked exception to golf, claiming it is more of a hindrance than an asset to a baseball player.

Rogers, besides liking the game well enough, would probably develop into a golfer above the average, but says baseball must come first. The golf swing and baseball have little in common he says.

In substantiating his statement, the Cardinal second-sacker says golf and the diamond sport develop a different set of muscles and is convinced that golf interferes with the muscle development of a baseball player.

Speaking from a pitcher's viewpoint, Sam Jones is of the belief that golf makes a hurler muscle-bound and must necessarily destroy a free and open swing.

In foregoing golf, Hornsby has everything to gain and nothing to lose by batting titles to his credit during his career. Rogers has eclipsed Wagner's record of long standing and is now pointing at Ty Cobb's nine straight in the American League. Therefore, golf is "out."

GARDEN CLUB DRIVE MEETING SUCCESS

One hundred and sixty-five members for the Xenia Garden Club, were obtained during the first two days of the week's canvass of the club over the city for 400 members. The solicitation is progressing splendidly, according to Mrs. Charles A. Keible, president.

The club meanwhile, is continuing its work of beautifying different sections of the city. The new city park has been worked over and shrubbery planted over the grounds, by the club, under the supervision of the club.

Shrubbery has been planted and grass seed sown on the Court House lawn and the Home Avenue park is being cared for. Paper boys and other children of the city are requested by the Garden Club to not walk on the Court House lawn or any other plot where the work is in progress or on residence lawns.

POLLYANNA READY FOR ITS PREMIER AT CENTRAL HIGH

"Pollyanna" the story that rivals "Peter Pan" for wholesome "gladness" and the tribulations of a young girl, will be presented by the Junior Class of Central High School, at the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium, Thursday and Friday nights.

This play is known as "the glad play" and the story has to do with the experiences of an orphan girl who is thrust, unwelcome, into the home of a maiden aunt. In spite of the tribulations that beset her life she manages to find something to be glad about and brings light into sunless lives.

Finally, Pollyanna straightens out the love affairs of her elders and last but not least, finds happiness for herself in the heart of "Jimmy."

The cast has been directed by Miss Jean B. Elwell. The cast of characters is as follows: "Ladies Aides," Mrs. Gregg, Elizabeth Stout; Miss Carroll Elizabeth Piper; Nancy, Miss Polly's servant, Josephine Johns; Polly Harrington, the aunt, Helen Reutinger; Pollyanna Whittier, "the glad girl," Barbara Little; Jimmy Bean, Jr., an orphan (age 12 years) William Wead; John Pentleton, Esq., the "king" George Penttille; Blecker, Pentleton's man, Robert Downing; Dr. Chilton, Pentleton's friend, Robert Currie; the chauffeur, Arnold Boxwell; the nurse, Mary Wilson; Jimmy Bean, Sr., the lover, (aged 17 years) Robert Finlay. The reserved seat plan is now open at Sohn's Drug Store, admission fifty cents. The play will begin at 8:15 p. m.

BELIEVE PLOT WAS TO WIPE OUT FAMILY

Chicago, April 15.—A possibility that the poison plot attributed to Mrs. Anna Cunningham, 47, of Gary, Ind., may have been aimed at annihilating the two remaining members of her family was raised here today when it became known the daughter, Mae, 18, had undergone an examination here following the appearance of symptoms of arsenic poisoning.

At the same time, her brother, David, whose illness and removal to a Chicago hospital brought the investigation into the deaths of Mrs. Cunningham's husband and four other children, abandoned his silence and confessed that previous to his illness, his mother had been putting "white tablets" into his coffee.

MODISH MITZI—Mitzi Views the Furs For Spring

This friend of Dad's who is coming from England—just what sort of celebrity is he? Dad refuses all further information, besides he's out of town and can't be bullied. Mitzi has her own opinions—

And Mitzi goes shopping for new fur neckpieces. This one in the first sketch was ermine and monkey. This is chiffon and fox. Both the tight collar and the long scarf are smart and good looking.

This is the jolly little fur collar that will be worn with tailored suits this season. It is being shown in badger, fox, dyed fitch, mole and ermine—the single touch of softness to the tailored suit.

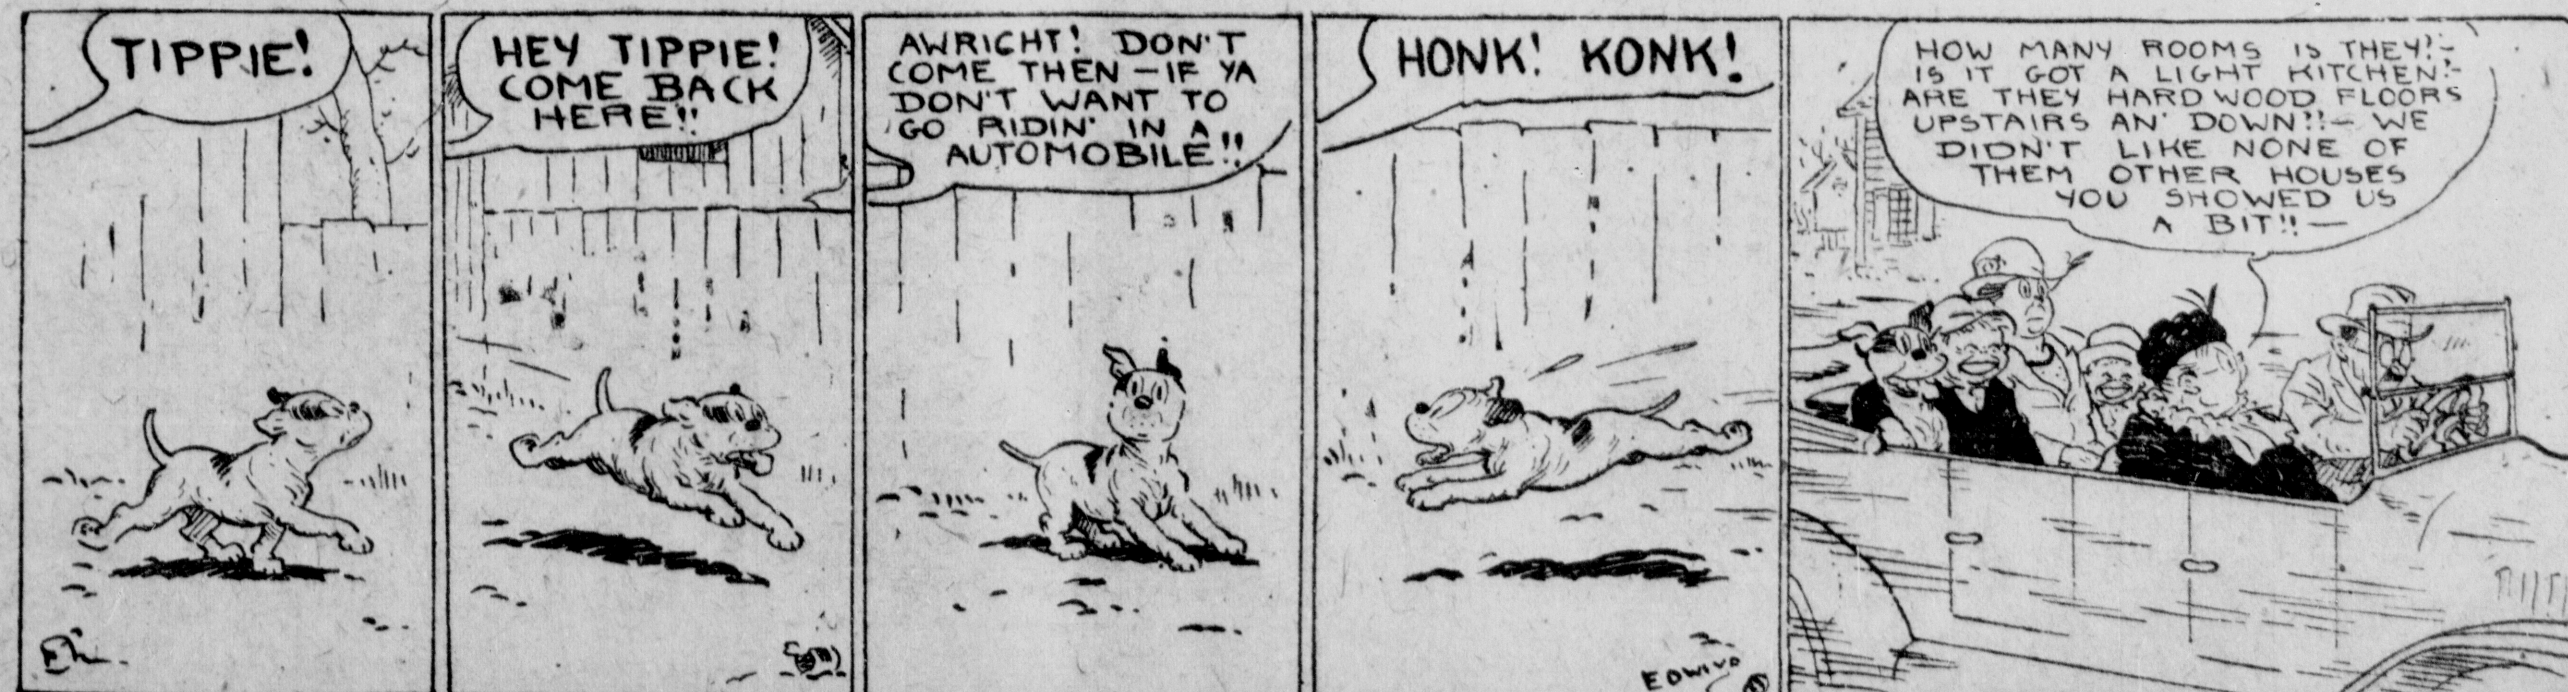

But Mitzi's dreams betray her. Mitzi is firmly convinced that the celebrity will be a portrait painter and that he will do a striking likeness of her called "Lady in a Fur Neckpiece" ... yes, the one on the bed post!

CLARKS CANCEL AND SHROYER CUBS WILL PLAY RESERVES HERE

The Xenia Reserves will play the Dayton Shroyer Cubs in the first game of a pre-arranged three game series Sunday afternoon at Washington Park. The future games will not be played on consecutive Sundays but each will be played on the home diamond.

The Cubs and Reserves indulged in a series of two games last year but the matter of supremacy is still undecided as each nine succeeded in capturing one game.

The Cubs handed Xenia the short end of a 4 to 1 score in the first game last season, but in the final game the Reserves turned the tables and won by a 3 to 2 margin, in extra innings.

Tewell, star hurler of the Cubs, who gave the Xenia nine its only defeat in the series last year will probably again get the call for mound duty with Buddy Franks on the relieving end. Franks was given a short try out with the St. Louis Nationals during an exhibition game at Dayton last year and although failing to make the grade is considered far better than the average type of catchers.

Cyphers, the Reserve star pitcher, who turned in a shut out game last Sunday in his first start of the season, will again be seen on the hill with Durnbaugh receiving his slants.

The game is called for 2:30 o'clock.

The Hamilton Clarks, who were scheduled to play the Reserves Sunday cancelled the game, the management announced.

TO WHITEN SKIN WITH LEMON

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quart of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion; also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It can not be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared.

I have finished the course and can say I am entirely cured of very severe indigestion, bloating and colic attacks I suffered from for many years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. HIS ONION QUEEN

The wrist watch on the dainty ankle of Xenia's fattest beauty had just struck twelve and it was evening in Morning Glory's quiet little apartment. Not a sound could be heard as the limited roared by just outside her window and a pair of twin babies screamed across the hall. Amid the deep thunder there was a thick silence.

Down the river in a palatial row-boat came Hick Begory, a Socrates for beauty and a grasshopper for common sense, but a wealthy onion king of Nevada. He was fragrant with onions and had never taken time to read the ads in the magazines about improper breathing—that is the aroma of it all.

His knock at Morning Glory's door was uncalled for. For the smell of onions almost knocked poor Morning Glory down. She held out her right hand, like a dog extending a thorn-pierced paw, and her lips parted like the dipper of a steam shovel. "Pleased to meet you," she said.

Soon they were padding along in his row-boat. Above the hum of the motor in the boat her voice raised. "Doesn't the moon remind you of a September toadstool with an attack of gangrene?" Her onion king was turning her head. He had his strong points.

In the darkness there was little light in the boat. Yet little he expected, for she was no light article, weighing a jolly 200. He had promised to take her to a quiting frolic at Bowersville but persuaded her not to go, saying he got few comforts from such an affair.

Suddenly he gained strength from the onions and, putting up a strong front, he said: "Oh, you great big overgrown calf, will you be my onion queen?"

It was too much. Throwing the oars away, she ejaculated, shaking the mosquitoes off of her ears: "You big bunch of onion tops, you know I will. My grandmother raised ten children, my mother raised garden stuff, but we will just raise onions."

And so they went away on their honeymoon on the traction-car. (To Be Continued)

APPLICATIONS FOR CAMP KNOX STILL BEING ACCEPTED

County Chairman H. D. Smith has received instructions from headquarters at Columbus to continue the Greene County enlistment campaign for the Citizen's Military Training Camp at Camp Knox, Ky., for this summer despite the fact the county's allotted quota has already been surpassed.

Greene County as well as all other counties in the state which have filled their quota are instructed to continue the enrollment since the state quota was but slightly more than half filled at the last report on April 23.

Applicants from Greene County will continue to be accepted until the state quota is completed. After that time, candidates will only be admitted to the period of training as alternates.

Greene County has over-subscribed its quota of eighteen by five, and all others wishing to enter the camp this year, are urged by Chairman Smith to fill out application blanks as early as possible to insure their admittance this summer.

Greene County's delegation to the camp was increased by three during the past week. The latest applicants to be accepted are: Victor D. Bruner, Osborn; C. C. Henrie, Xenia and Walter I. Marshall, Jamestown.

SENTENCED TO JAIL BY MILITARY COURT

L. W. Reel, Xenia, private in Company L, 147th Infantry, Ohio National Guard, was sentenced to spend 130 days in the Greene County Jail at a summary court martial held at the Armory, East Main Street, Monday night on thirteen violations of military regulations. He was fined $10 on each charge by Lieutenant John Berger and committed to the jail for failure to pay the fines. He pleaded guilty to each charge.

Numbered among the thirteen counts upon which he was sentenced were charges of absence from drill, absent without leave, absent from federal inspection, and breaking rest, the latter two, the more serious. Reel was arrested several weeks ago on a charge of absenting himself from regular drill, but affected his escape from the armory at court martial proceedings and left the city. He was captured by police Saturday, according to Captain Leroy John.

TO GIVE ADDRESS

Bucyrus, April 15—Rev. Ernest Fiedlerjohann, of the St. John's Reformed Church, has been selected to deliver the annual Memorial Day address Saturday, May 30. Other preparations for proper observance of the day are in progress.

Michael's Marriage

By MICHAEL

CHAPTER XVI

"May I come next Sunday?"

"Why, of course, Michael, if you can't come tomorrow. Where have you been keeping yourself? We haven't seen a thing of you. I hope you're keeping out of mischief. You know that you can come to dinner or luncheon for that matter, whenever you like."

Mrs. Winston talked like a machine-gun.

"I've been intending to come over," he murmured, weakly.

"How is everyone?"

"Dr. Winston is having trouble with his stomach again."

"Perhaps he has been taking some of his own medicine," Michael laughed.

"He was immensely relieved when he was able to restore the receiver, but was possessed by a sense of guilt. 'I ought not to treat Aunt Mary that way,' he told himself. He resolved to visit the Winstons before the following Sunday."

Michael had planned to arrive at the Capper home early on Sunday afternoon in hopes of catching Alonzo and persuading him to remain for tea. He knew Lonnie's aversion for tea parties, particularly those of his sister; and he remembered with a smile how he had abetted Alonzo until recently. He grinned as he realized that he was now doing things he had sworn never to do—and all because of a woman.

But this plan of getting to the Capper house early fell through. He slept till noon, and then idled through his bath and breakfast and his newspaper, so that it was nearly three o'clock before he suddenly realized that it was time for him to dress. This he accomplished in less time than when he Blanton, as he called himself in a sack suit of a dark weave, instead of the frock coat and trousers to match. He was doubtful for a moment about the advisability of this, fearing that Lilah might remember he had "dressed up" for the first affair. He knew that girls like to have men "dress up" for them. But he was willing to brave her displeasure in order to insure himself comfort. Michael was disquieted by the oft repeated definition of a gentleman, "one who is always comfortable in a dress suit."

To reach the Capper residence it was necessary to pass through the section of the city in which the residence of Dr. Winston was located.

Fate decreed that Michael's car should stop alongside that of the doctor, in which his wife was riding with him, at a corner. Their eyes met at the same time. Michael smiled and waved to "Aunt Mary," with his cheeks flushing. "What must they think?" he asked himself. (To be continued.)

"That Car is beyond the Polishing Stage!"

"ELBOW grease" can't bring back that showroom lustre. But there is a way to make your car look as well as it runs.

With Devoe Motor Car Finish, you can make the old "bus" look like new. It comes in standard automobile colors, sets smoothly—without brush marks or ridges—dries quickly with a durable, glass-like finish. Costs little. Easy to apply.
